

IMMERSE YOURSELF

PRE-COLLEGE PROGRAMS FOR ENTERING
JUNIORS AND SENIORS

JUST 23 MILES FROM NEW YORK CITY

Adelphi University's Summer Pre-College Programs allow students entering their junior and senior years to gain an exciting and enriching college experience by taking credit-bearing programs while still in high school. Residential options are also available.

Check out the excellent facilities that Adelphi offers on our beautiful and safe Garden City campus. We're mere steps from the nearest Long Island Rail Road station and just 23 miles from New York City—the cultural and entertainment capital of the world—where our students explore many experiential learning opportunities, including internships.

Reside on campus and receive personalized attention from our professional and caring group of instructors, advisers and support staff. Our academic programs are taught by our prestigious, nationally recognized faculty, and we have partnerships with influential academic institutions such as Columbia University and New York University. You will receive up to 3 transferable college credits after completing a specific program.
